NEW COPYRIGHT LAW

The new copyright law goes into effect January 1st, 1978. A preliminary draft of a college copyright policy discussing relevant sections of the law in more detail is being developed and will be circulated as soon as possible. However, teachers planning to rely heavily next semester on multiple copying for classroom use or for placing materials on reserve in the library should contact Jeanne Conway regarding the criteria for such use.

Because of the complexity of the new law the library urges all faculty to learn about its specifics, and are referred to pages D4 - D7 of the Faculty Guide to Instructional Support Services which was distributed in August, 1977.

For more information contact Jeanne Conway in the library, ext. 351.

WANT TO TAKE A "CHANCE"??

The Alexandria-Potomac Lions Club is having a fund raising project on campus this week. All proceeds will go to the Helen Keller Memorial Fund. If you want to try your luck contact Gary at the Print Shop, Arts Building, or call 730 (TTY).

OUT OF THE OFFICE

The Department of Counseling will be closed from December 23, 1977 through January 2, 1978.

"TODAY" LAST WEEK

When the SUB and the SBG invited the Jewish Community Center's orchestra to play at Gallaudet with Jim Kuzma's visible music display interpreting the music in a shower of colors, they didn't know that NBC-TV's Carol Simpson would also be there with her camera crew. She filmed a bit of the action for both the "Today Show" and NBC's national newscast (shown on Friday, December 9).

SOCIAL WORK PROGRAM GRANTED ACCREDITATION

The Council on Social Work Education has granted accreditation to our Social Work Program for a three year period (1977-1980). Congratulations to Dorothy Polakoff and her staff (Evelyn Wolstein, Catherine Moses and Mary Fine).

ENERGY CONSERVATION

Winter weather brings with it a responsibility to the Gallaudet community to expend our energy resources wisely. Fuel oil, electric power, and gas are irreplaceable, expensive commodities. Beginning December 12, the Physical Plant Department will begin turning off certain fans, systems, pumps when not needed, to reduce our consumption of energy.

This action should not interfere with the normal conduct of the College function, or impose undue hardship on individuals.

For more information on this contact Jim Hull, ext. 759.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL

AMONG OURSELVES

--"Can Schools Speak the Language of the Deaf?" an article on mainstreaming written by Joanne Greenberg and Glenn Doolittle for The New York Times Magazine, quotes Edward C. Merrill, Jr. on the subject of PL 94-142. Other campus people are included in some of the photographs accompanying the article (Sunday, December 11).

--Gil Eastman and Mary Ann Royster conducted an interpreters' workshop in Fredericksburg, Virginia, for the Virginia Council for the Deaf. Mary Ann and Gil served as NITC consultants for a workshop on interpreting for deaf persons with minimal language skills.
In December Gil visited the Kentucky School for the Deaf in Danville and conducted a workshop for high school students entitled,
"The Making of the Production", and gave a speech on Laurent Clerc for the Gallaudet-Clerc Day Banquet.

--Elizabeth Taylor Warner seems to be telling Bill Pugin that she loves him in this week's People magazine (December 19), but that's not the way the item under the photograph explains it. Mrs. Warner visited Gallaudet for a Continuing Education Forum planned by Don Pettingill.

--Ruth Seth Funderburg, Assistant Professor, Department of Education, conducted a workshop with Jim Achtzen and Ed Shroyer at the North Carolina on November 22nd and 23rd.

--Merv Garretson and Jack Gannon represented the Gallaudet Task Force on PL 94-142 at a workshop at the Milburn School for the Deaf in Newark, N.J. Larry Forestal is the new principal of this school.

--The Laurent Clerc Cultural Fund Committee of the GCAA has entered into agreement with William Sparks, a deaf artist in North Carolina, to paint a portrait of Edward C.
Merrill. Portraits of Gallaudet's first three presidents hang in College Hall.

ON THE GREEN is published each week by the Office of Alumni and Public Relations for the faculty and staff of Gallaudet College.
